Mizzen Completes Financing on a Plumbing Company

Stamford, CT – January 19, 2026 – Mizzen, a private credit platform, announced that a fund it manages has provided a $6.5 million term loan and equity investment to a Plumbing and Fire safety company (the “Company”) on January 16, 2026.

The Company is a leading regional provider of fire protection, plumbing, and site-preparation services. By providing integrated services, the Company offers a more seamless, cost-effective solution that fosters strong customer relationships.

Mizzen supported a family-owned business through a major generational shift, helping transition both ownership and leadership to new stewards while preserving the Company’s longstanding legacy. This highlights Mizzen’s dedication to supporting family businesses during key transitions.

“We’ve pleased to partner with Mizzen to continue this family’s legacy while creating value and supporting organic and acquisition-driven growth,” said the Sponsors. “We chose Mizzen for their deep experience in the business services sector and their reputation for delivering with a high certainty of closing.”

Marilyn Adler, Managing Partner at Mizzen, added, “We were attracted by the Company’s consistent performance through market cycles and aligned with the Sponsor’s vision of building the business. We believe this Company has the potential to become a leading platform in the region.”

About The Company

The Company serves as a premier regional provider of fire protection, plumbing, and site preparation solutions. By integrating these services, it offers clients in both commercial and residential sectors a smooth, cost-effective project experience. With a strong focus on timely project delivery and exceptional service quality, the Company consistently strives to exceed customer expectations.
