Mizzen Capital Provides Follow on Term Loan to support the add on acquisition of a Plumbing Company

Stamford, CT – April 17, 2026 - Mizzen, a private credit platform, announced today that a fund it manages has provided a follow on term loan of $1.3 million to support the add on acquisition of a plumbing company (the “Company”).

The business provides a comprehensive suite of fire protection and plumbing services through a unified operating platform. Its focus on operational consistency, diversified project activity, and strong customer relationships supports stable performance and a resilient revenue profile.

“Mizzen’s continued partnership supported this strategic add-on, expanding the platform’s plumbing operations and service footprint,” said the Company.

“The acquisition advances our disciplined growth strategy within the plumbing sector.”

Marilyn Adler, Managing Partner at Mizzen, added, “We are pleased to support the existing portfolio company and remain encouraged by management’s ability to execute and integrate acquisitions to drive long-term value.”

About The Company

The Company serves as a premier regional provider of fire protection, plumbing, and site preparation solutions. By integrating these services, it offers clients in both commercial and residential sectors a smooth, cost-effective project experience. With a strong focus on timely project delivery and exceptional service quality, the Company consistently strives to exceed customer expectations.
