Mizzen Fund Completes Financing to an Iron Castings Manufacturer

Stamford, CT – May 12, 2026 – Mizzen, a private credit platform, announced that funds it manages have provided $9.0 million senior secured term loan to an Iron Castings Manufacturer (the “Company”) on April 30, 2026. This financing supports a Sponsor-led Management buyout of the Company.

The Company is a leading foundry specializing in high-quality, wear-resistant and iron alloy castings for demanding industrial applications. It has built a reputation for durability, innovation, and responsiveness across sectors such as construction, mining, recycling, energy, agriculture, and mineral processing.

The Company’s CEO said, “Mizzen was a natural partner for the transaction given its long-standing focus on backing experienced management teams with flexible capital structures and a collaborative, long-term approach,”

Marilyn Adler, Managing Partner at Mizzen, commented, “We are delighted to help support this platform as it pursues a dynamic growth strategy. The Company’s experienced leadership, robust asset base, and unique operating model strongly align with Mizzen’s focus on essential, non-cyclical industries.”

About The Company

Founded in the 1800s, the Company is a leading foundry operating as a low- to medium-volume, niche job shop, providing engineered casting solutions to customers across construction, mining, recycling, energy, agriculture, and mineral processing end markets. The Company’s deep technical capabilities, stringent customer specifications, and pattern-based production processes support long-standing customer relationships and recurring replacement demand.
