

Elizabeth Karter and Victoria Shih attended the Small Business Investor Alliance Western Capital Summit in California on April 16–17, where they connected with industry peers and engaged in discussions on the evolving regulatory landscape impacting the private credit and SBIC ecosystem.

A key highlight was the passage of the Investing in All of America Act, which is expected to bring meaningful developments to the industry.

We look forward to continuing to follow these changes and sharing further perspectives as implementation progresses.

