

Mizzen Capital Completes Financing on a Towing Company

Stamford, CT – November 20, 2025 – Mizzen, a private credit platform, announced today that it has provided term loan of $5 million to towing company (the “Company”) on August 26, 2025.

The Company is a 24/7 towing company known for its full suite of services including towing, recovery, roadside assistance, and parking enforcement for both cars and motorcycles. The Company maintains strong partnerships with major insurance companies and roadside assistance providers. The Company is recognized for its professional and customer-oriented service.

“We’ve grown organically for several years, but realized Mizzen could help accelerate our growth through acquisitions,” said the founder of the Company. “We partnered with Mizzen due to several roll-up examples in their existing portfolio and their reputation to lead an efficient diligence process.”

Marilyn Adler, Managing Partner at Mizzen, added, “We were attracted by the founder’s operational track record of leading collision repair businesses. We believe this Company could become a leader in the towing industry.”

About The Company

The Company is a customer-focused, 24/7 provider of light-, medium-, and heavy-duty towing and recovery services. Recognized for its rapid response times, efficient asset utilization, and advanced technology infrastructure, the Company has built a strong reputation for reliability and service excellence.
