Mizzen Capital Completes Financing for a Precast Concrete Fencing Company

Stamford, CT – September 9, 2025 – Mizzen, a private credit platform, announced today that funds it manages provided a $19 million term loan and equity financing to a precast concrete fencing company (the "Company").

The Company is a vertically integrated provider that specializes in the design, fabrication, manufacturing, and installation of precast concrete, masonry, and wrought iron fencing and wall systems. Its offerings serve a diverse customer base, including commercial, institutional, multi-family, and residential sectors.

Mizzen supported a successful generational transition for a family-owned business, facilitating the transfer of ownership and leadership to new successors and ensuring the Company's continuity and legacy. This effort reflects Mizzen's commitment to empowering family enterprises during pivotal moments of change.

"We're thrilled to partner with Mizzen as we execute on our strategic growth initiatives," said the Sponsor. "Their flexible financing approach and prior residential and commercial services investing experience made them the ideal capital partner."

Marilyn Adler, Managing Partner at Mizzen, commented, "This Company's reputation for quality and innovation makes them a strong fit for our investment strategy. We're excited to support their growth."
