Mizzen Capital Provides Incremental Financing to Support Two Add-On Acquisitions for Multi-State Landscaping Platform

Stamford, CT – June 8, 2026 – Mizzen, a private credit platform, announced that a fund it manages has provided a $7.2 million delayed draw term loan to a multi-state, operator-led landscaping services platform (the “Company”) on June 4, 2026. This financing will support the acquisitions of regional landscaping services businesses and provide additional liquidity to advance the Company’s disciplined acquisition strategy. This incremental financing builds on Mizzen and a co-lender’s existing investment in the landscaping services platform and increases the total outstanding loan to $20.2 million.

The Company is a differentiated, operator led platform providing a full suite of grounds maintenance and outdoor services, including landscape maintenance, irrigation, enhancements, and project-based services. The business serves commercial, HOA, and residential customers across multiple high-growth U.S.

markets, with a strategy focused on recurring revenue, disciplined acquisitions, and operational integration.

“These acquisitions mark an important step in expanding our presence in key growth markets and enhancing our service capabilities,” said the Company’s CEO. “Mizzen’s continued support and flexible capital approach allow us to advance our acquisition strategy and create long-term value.”

Marilyn Adler, Managing Partner at Mizzen, commented, “We are pleased to continue supporting the Company as it scales its platform through strategic acquisitions. The Company’s strong operating track record, recurring revenue profile, and disciplined integration strategy position it well for sustained growth. This transaction reflects our focus on partnering with experienced operators in fragmented industries where clear consolidation opportunities can drive long-term value creation.”

About the Company

The Company is a multi-state provider of landscaping and grounds services, operating through a portfolio of regionally recognized businesses. Its service offering spans recurring landscape maintenance, irrigation, enhancements, and select project-based work, serving a diversified mix of commercial, HOA, and residential customers.
