Mizzen Capital Completes Financing on a Resort and Adventure Destination Company

Stamford, CT – August 25, 2025 – Mizzen, a private credit platform, announced today that it has provided term loan of $10 million to a resort and adventure destination (the “Company”) on August 15, 2025.

The Company is a family-owned resort and adventure destination known for its all-inclusive experiences that combine outdoor recreation with high-end hospitality. Situated in a popular regional leisure market, the resort offers year-round activities including horseback riding, water attractions, winter sports, and live entertainment positioning it as a premier getaway for families across the broader Northeastern U.S.

“We’re excited to partner with Mizzen as we enter our next phase of growth,” said the CEO of the Company. “Their flexible financing will allow us to expand our facilities, enhance guest experiences, and continue delivering unforgettable family vacations.”

Liddy Karter, Managing Partner at Mizzen, commented, “The Company has built a unique and beloved brand in the family resort space. Their commitment to quality, innovation, and guest satisfaction aligns perfectly with our investment philosophy. We’re proud to support their continued success.”

About The Company

Founded in the late 1950s, the Company is a four-season family resort offering a diverse mix of indoor and outdoor recreational activities.

With a strong emphasis on hospitality, safety, and guest satisfaction, it has cultivated a loyal customer base and received industry recognition for its service and amenities. The Company is currently expanding its operations to meet increasing demand and further enhance its offerings.
