

Mizzen Capital Fund Completes Financing to a Multi-State Landscaping Services Platform

Stamford, CT – April 9, 2026 – Mizzen, a private credit platform, announced that a fund it manages and a co-lender have provided $13.0 million in senior secured financing to a multi-state, operator-led landscaping services platform (the “Company”) on March 19, 2026. This financing will support the acquisition of a regional landscaping services business and provide additional liquidity to advance the Company’s disciplined acquisition strategy.

The Company is a differentiated, operator led platform providing a full suite of grounds maintenance and outdoor services, including landscape maintenance, irrigation, enhancements, and project-based services. The business serves commercial, HOA, and residential customers across multiple high-growth U.S. markets, with a strategy focused on recurring revenue, disciplined acquisitions, and operational integration.

“We are excited to partner with Mizzen in support of an operator led landscaping services platform serving essential, recurring end markets and positioned for disciplined, scalable growth. Mizzen’s understanding of service-based businesses, thoughtful approach to acquisition financing, and ability to structure long-term capital around our cash flow profile made them a natural financing partner for this transaction,” said the Company’s CEO.

Marilyn Adler, Managing Partner at Mizzen, commented, “The Company’s recurring revenue mix, experienced operating team, and measured acquisition strategy support a strong credit profile. We structured this financing to provide stability through the cycle while giving the platform flexibility to execute on its growth plan.”
